

Chinnor Chronicle

The Fortnightly Journal of Chinnor & District

Issue No. 1.

Monday, 20th July, 1970.

Price 6d.

FIRST EDITION

Today sees the first edition of your own local news and advertiser. This complimentary first edition is being delivered to all houses in the village. We look for your support, as it is only in this way that we hope to achieve our objects.

This newspaper is non-political and is not campaigning for or against any organisation or opinion. We are free thinking and hope to print facts and a variety of opinions.

Costs of printing have necessarily kept the paper within the size limits you now see, but with the increase in circulation which we hope for, perhaps we may see a larger paper.

We hope to print Club news supplied to us by Club Secretaries or press officers and any news or events of local interest.

Letters to the Editor will be printed on the understanding that we do not necessarily support the views of the writers.

Our Aims

- To provide local news.
- To bring to the notice of the Community the many leisure pursuits that are available in the neighbourhood.
- To promote a keen Village spirit.
- To print the facts.
- To air peoples views and by so doing stimulate interest in local affairs
- To advertise to a wide section of the Community.
- To maintain your interest.

£500 to CHARITIES.

Headmaster of the Wenman School, Thame, Mr. Geoffrey Chaplin reported at the school's annual speech day on Tuesday, 14th July, that thanks to the combined efforts of the pupils a total of £500 had been presented to charities during last year.

Guest of Honour, I.M. Newman, B.A., Headmaster of Gosford Hill School, Kidlington, distributed prizes to the pupils, amongst whom were the following local winners.

Paul Goodenough, Patricia Edwards, Wendy Head, Vivien Horwood, Jeffrey Sydenham, Thomas Bird, David Hester, Chris Middleton, John Gaughan, Pauline Buckingham, Samuel Lincoln, Juliana Fox, Trevor Biswell, Linda Chavasse, Angela Davis, Terence Gray Pauline Turner, Fay Smith, Jean Wolfendale, Alan Morris, Michael Stevens, Margaret Bailey, David Perry, David Chavasse, Andrew Perrin Alison Slater.